

Oh LORD our God

To the tune of "Finlandia"

Oh LORD our God
Our robes are torn, and feeling
Like drunken men
We stagger and we fall
Oh LORD our God
We are a nation reeling
Oh Living God
—Catch us for we fall
Oh LORD our God
For mercy we appealing
Look unto You
To save us from the fall

Of mercy we
Are always undeserving
We bow to serve
the one that hates us all
Enslaved to sin
We stagger unrelenting
To serve our greed
Till sin destroys us all
We see ourselves
So strong, ourselves impressing
But truth to tell
A blindness darkens all

We serve ourselves
You speak and no one listens
We serve our flesh
Unto its rages bow
Pining for wealth
We seek a hill that glistens
We seek our sin
To quiet passions now
We shape our "gods"
Of stone that do not listen
Killing ourselves
And then we wonder how

We do not see
We are a nation reeling
We do not see
That You are at our side
Yet out of this
You bring a nation kneeling
To shine Your love
Jesus, the LORD our God
Who turns our hearts
To be a nation kneeling
It's You. It's You.
Jesus, the LORD our God
